

'Secretarial Avenues' Discussed at Program

"Secretarial Avenues" as the pathway to success has been chosen as the subject for the regular dinner meeting of the South Bay Chapter National Secretaries Association International by Herschel Menager, program chairman.

The meeting has been scheduled by President Margaret Beavers, Torrance, for Thursday, at 7 p.m. at the Pen and Quill in Manhattan Beach.

An open forum discussion by experts in management, personnel and education as well as by two secretaries representing a small firm and a large business will be moderated by Jane Eastcott, Torrance, education chairman.

Betty Jewhurst of El Camino College will address the meeting on the opportunities for beginning secretaries. The qualifications sought by employers will be explained by A. C. Pfeil of Aerospace Corporation. W. S. Fryer of Douglas Aircraft Company, Inc., will explain to the secretary members of the chapter and their guests management programs to encourage career advancement to top secretarial positions.

Pat Bennett and Margaret Charles will tell why they chose to work for their firms and discuss the advantages of employment in small businesses and for large companies.

All secretaries in the area are invited to attend. Reservations may be made by calling Herschel Menager at OS 9-4661, extension 3523 or OR 2-8773.

Man's Dominion Topic of Sermon

Man's dominion over everything that would alienate him from God, good, will be emphasized today at Christian Science services.

Paul's healing ministry will be featured in the Bible readings. The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" will include Paul's words to the Romans: "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

This correlative citation will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (p. 303).

LAST-MINUTE adjustments are made before members of South Bay Chapter of Hadassah appear on stage at the organization's fashion show Tuesday at the Casman Sea. Preparing for the 1 p.m. event, open to public, are (l-r) Mmes. David Rubin, Robert Breakstone and Randolph Fields. Fashions from the House of Chanvictar at Rolling Hills Plaza will be featured at the event.

Politicos Plan 'Coffee' Event

As charter members of the newly formed organization, Women for Wilson, more than 175 women have pledged their support to Democratic candidate Charles H. Wilson in his race for Congress in the 31st District, according to membership chairman Mrs. Donald Rankin.

Holding gold membership cards, they are representative of the 63rd and 65th Assembly Districts and are at work on plans for participation in the political campaign.

They coordinated "coffee" parties for their neighbors to meet the candidate, stood by for detail work in the local headquarters office and in the precincts get-together for a mid-campaign membership tea Oct. 13 at the Inglewood Women's Club.

Officers of the forming committee were Mrs. David Goodman and Mrs. Walter Taylor, co-chairmen; Mrs. James Madison, treasurer, and Mrs. Kenneth Thomas, secretary.
